nuttsbutter: So I just stopped trying and got ready for the second one smittyyyy: Yep that sounds identical to how I almost drowned too. First instinct is to thrash and try nuttsbutter: Keep in mind that the water wasn't too deep. Maybe 3-4 feet at most and I could touc nuttsbutter: I hit my heel on the second damns ramp and go even further smittyyyy: Yeah it's always surprising to realize a lot of people drown in shallow water. nuttsbutter: The current Isn't as strong but still too powerful for me to get away from and I notice t nuttsbutter: So as I'm approaching the last damn I raise my feet so I don't hit anything nuttsbutter: This time I got down smooth and don't struggle nuttsbutter: Finally at the last layer which expands into normal river the current is slow nuttsbutter: The water is like 10 feet deep at least nuttsbutter: Me being a scared little kid sees a rock and I swim hard to get on it smittyyyy: That's so scary lol. And genuinely shocking just how powerful even relatively "calm" wa nuttsbutter: Apparently I was extreamly lucky too smittyyyy: Yeah dams are so dangerous. nuttsbutter: I looked back later to see I missed 2 big rocks that are by the ramps nuttsbutter: If my head had went under and I hit it I could have been a goner nuttsbutter: And that's why I never trust water nuttsbutter: Not even 2 inches smittyyyy: Where I fell out of my boat (it tipped) the water was 3 feet but it looked like this:
smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: And I remember I was instantly sucked under smittyyyy: And I spent a lot of time thrashing to stay above but kept being pulled down and hitting nuttsbutter: Rapids?
smittyyyy: And the water went so fast that hitting those rocks hurt smittyyyy: Yep smittyyyy: The water initially had to have only been 3 feet but there's NO way to stand in that.
smittyyyy: But it got deeper more toward 6-10 feet smittyyyy: And I kept being pulled down until I realized I was just going to die if I kept trying to sw smittyyyy: And figured broken bones were better than death by drowning smittyyyy: So I put my arms out first to hopefully try not to hit my head too many times (this is why nuttsbutter: You ever been to Schlitterbahn? With the giant wave pool they have? smittyyyy: I hit a slightly "calmer" section and that's when some kid miraculously spotted me smittyyyy: Because keep in mind smittyyyy: Those whitewaters are so hard to see smittyyyy: When someone goes under it's basically just luck. smittyyyy: They grabbed my shirt and I ended up getting onto their boat. smittyyyy: I have not actually. smittyyyy: Where's it at?
nuttsbutter: That is one lucky save smittyyyy: Fr nuttsbutter: It's here in Texas smittyyyy: I got so lucky smittyyyy: I was VERY beat up nuttsbutter: I'd imagine so nuttsbutter: You're lucky to have lived smittyyyy: But that’s why everyone needs to wear a life vest lol. smittyyyy: Even if you’re a good swimmer smittyyyy: And a helmet too. smittyyyy: And if you’re drowning, stop swimming smittyyyy: :CatBlink:

nuttsbutter: It may seem wack nuttsbutter: But following the current usually saves you smittyyyy: 90% of the time people drown because they try to swim away smittyyyy: Versus just holding your breath and letting the current take you smittyyyy: You’re definitely gonna get banged up but you might live smittyyyy: Your chances increase a lot. nuttsbutter: Some wise old man: one must relinquish control to gain control smittyyyy: See in the moment (I’m sure you’ll get what I mean) you just instinctively thrash nuttsbutter: Oh yeah smittyyyy: Like I just tried to surface and didn’t even think. smittyyyy: It’s just survival mode smittyyyy: It wasn’t until I was totally exhausted that it dawned on me I was always told not to swi nuttsbutter: Fight or flight kicks in and it’s all instinct at first smittyyyy: Or to swim gently with the current, at best. smittyyyy: Especially for something like ocean rip currents. smittyyyy: But personally, I don’t like swimming anymore smittyyyy: :Scrum:
nuttsbutter: That’s fair honestly smittyyyy: Especially not the ocean, you couldn’t pay me to get in. nuttsbutter: I’ve gone to the ocean and it’s fine on the beach smittyyyy: Pools and lakes are ok, though. nuttsbutter: But I wouldn’t go out in that deep water smittyyyy: I almost drowned as a kid too actually smittyyyy: As a 4 year old nuttsbutter: If I can’t stand in it I don’t trust it smittyyyy: My deadbeat parents didn’t monitor me by a pool smittyyyy: Which is how a lot of young kids drown smittyyyy: They’re left unattended near pools and fall in and then can’t get out nuttsbutter: Oh parents of our generation. How did any of them become parents smittyyyy: :Scrum:
smittyyyy: Idk, glad I didn’t really grow up with any, in some ways. smittyyyy: Having family seems annoying. nuttsbutter: Oh trust me. It is smittyyyy: But yeah I did survive smittyyyy: Spoiler alert smittyyyy: :Scrum: :Scrum:
nuttsbutter: Damn smittyyyy: I remember I somehow got lucky and swam out nuttsbutter: I had theories about if you had lived smittyyyy: Because tbf we do have some instincts to swim nuttsbutter: Now you spoiled the whole show smittyyyy: Yeah sorry hate to spoil it smittyyyy: Should've just left the ending up to the reader nuttsbutter: :shibheh: smittyyyy: But unrelated to my drownings, I don't like swimming lol smittyyyy: I just don't really like being cold and wet in general so. nuttsbutter: Mood

smittyyyy: I really only swim if my friends are begging me. nuttsbutter: At Schlitterbahn the wave pool is this massive oval smittyyyy: Is that a water park or something? nuttsbutter: Yea nuttsbutter: And there's a part that sticks out which you can't enter and it's where the waves com smittyyyy: I've been to a wave pool in a park once as a little kid but it's been a long time and I'm r nuttsbutter: If you're right next to it and let the water take you it tries to suck you under
smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: Aw hell nah smittyyyy: Why's it so big
smittyyyy: ■ nuttsbutter: Luckily it's not deep enough to do any harm but it can be scary sheebadreams: WHAT THE FUCKnuttsbutter: That picture is like once in a blue moon smittyyyy: Reminds me of ocean waves and damns. Those undercurrents that pull you. smittyyyy: That's so scary that they get that big ■ nuttsbutter: Nah sheebadreams: :diesdead: nuttsbutter: It never gets that big
smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: This is fake right
smittyyyy: ■■■ sheebadreams: Fuck datsmittyyyy: Ain't no way nuttsbutter: The highest I've seen the waves get is like 8-10 feet and it's for a brief second smittyyyy: The headline says it was a broken wave pool but like smittyyyy: Random news lies nuttsbutter: And it's only around the turns sheebadreams: Bruh smittyyyy: This is pretty nuttsbutter: Waves are different from current
smittyyyy:
sheebadreams: The wave pool at six flags was a bit packed smittyyyy: Whoops idk why it opens outside discord. smittyyyy: But that pool looks nice. sheebadreams: Lol nuttsbutter: Waves suck you up normally while current sucks you wherever it's going nuttsbutter: Water is weird sheebadreams: Yep smittyyyy: I hate the undertow from waves, though smittyyyy: Also rip currents are scary asf smittyyyy: :furcry: sheebadreams: B r u h

smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: And the fact that people can’t identify them nuttsbutter: The waves at Schlitterbahnare actually really relaxing smittyyyy: They’re sometimes hard to see from beachside.
smittyyyy:
sheebadreams: Imagine being in an innertube and all of a sudden being just rushedsheebadreams: That's spooky
smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: This one is less obvious. smittyyyy: People might be playing in one and not even realize until they’re being pulled nuttsbutter: Oh so that’s what that feeling was smittyyyy: But yeah apparently to get out you either
smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: A) Just ride it out to the depths then swim back out after smittyyyy: B) Swim gently diagonally to get out smittyyyy: If it’s a super aggressive current they tell you just ride it out to the deep part of the oce nuttsbutter: I was wondering why I felt like I was being pulled smittyyyy: But if you’re able to, you can gently swim diagonally to reach the edge. sheebadreams: I've always been iffy about the ocean smittyyyy: Yeah it’s scary, apparently smittyyyy: I learnt about rip currents in an encyclopedia as a kiddo before I ever got the chance to nuttsbutter: I must have gotten lucky to not get pulled in fully sheebadreams: Yeah otherwise we wouldn't see you again >-< nuttsbutter: The hell is with me and beginners luck smittyyyy: “Survivors” talk about how terrifyingly far out the currents go smittyyyy: Pics don’t do it justice smittyyyy: Because the currents go so far out. smittyyyy: That’s, like, nightmare fuel lol. smittyyyy: I mean look at the first pic of it I posted smittyyyy: Humans for scale smittyyyy: That’s super far out. smittyyyy: They’re only deadly because people freak tf out and start trying to swim away. smittyyyy: And get exhausted until they drown. smittyyyy: But apparently they have a very high survival rate if you just chill lol. nuttsbutter: It’s not too far out smittyyyy: Some go REALLY far, like 400+ meters out smittyyyy: We’re not talking, like, miles nuttsbutter: I’ve been that far and it may seem far but it only takes 1 or 2 rides of wavnuttsbutter: :LambUhm:
smittyyyy: But swimming 400 meters back to shore is crazy far nuttsbutter: Well smittyyyy: (That’s 1/4 of a mile) nuttsbutter: I didn’t know that but smittyyyy: Not all go that far, though, rest assured nuttsbutter: From my experience the waves will push you back over time smittyyyy: Yeah they’re far smittyyyy: But not wide smittyyyy: They’re between 15-80 feet wide smittyyyy: So if you can swim at a diagonal you’ll reach the edge and the waves will push you ba smittyyyy: You’re only really gonna end up at the total end if

smittyyyy:
smittyyyy: 1) it’s extremely aggressive smittyyyy: 2) You didn’t swim lol nuttsbutter: The ocean is super salty btw smittyyyy: Or if it doesn’t go out far* smittyyyy: Some only go out 300 ft smittyyyy: Which is still kind of crazy far smittyyyy: But not bad like 100+ meters nuttsbutter: Funny story I just remembered nuttsbutter: My grandma has bad balance nuttsbutter: And we went a bit into the ocean nuttsbutter: Where the waves start to get about up to your lower back nuttsbutter: She fell almost twice nuttsbutter: I couldn’t stop laughing smittyyyy: Oh apparently I’m wrong nuttsbutter: She tried to stand up and a big one washed over her smittyyyy: They average at 400 meters out nuttsbutter: :CatBlink: smittyyyy: But they can reach up to 1 KM
nuttsbutter: :LambUhm:
smittyyyy: So usually they’re between 300 - 600 meters smittyyyy: So almost a half mile
smittyyyy: :CatBlink:
smittyyyy: I hate that nuttsbutter: Well
nuttsbutter: I guess that pulling feeling wasn’t one of those smittyyyy: They also apparently kill more people than tornadoes and hurricanes combined per ye
smittyyyy: ■■ nuttsbutter: Well to be fair smittyyyy: It is possible it was tbh because some start small nuttsbutter: Tornados and hurricanes are fast and scary smittyyyy: And sometimes you’ll get smaller ones luckily smittyyyy: Sounds like me tbh nuttsbutter: Omg i remember my sister lost the keys to my grandpas truck and somehow found th nuttsbutter: In the ocean smittyyyy: Wtff smittyyyy: That’s so lucky nuttsbutter: She is single-handedly the stupidest person I know and the luckiest person nuttsbutter: She got into a car accident because quote on quote “my eyes were feeling dry so I cl nuttsbutter: Front of the car was ruined and she was safe smittyyyy: :CatCrazy: :CatCrazy: smittyyyy: Wtfff smittyyyy: That’s scary nuttsbutter: She’s dumb as bricks smittyyyy: But I guess if you’re dumb, being lucky is the best thing for you

smittyyyy: :Scrum: :Scrum: nuttsbutter: Idk how she is this dumb but this lucky smittyyyy: Tbh I say I’m a cat because I got 9 lives smittyyyy: I’ve died twice
smittyyyy: :CatBlink:
smittyyyy: And that’s not including the near-death experiences too. smittyyyy: So honestly, I’m pretty lucky myself. smittyyyy: Not full death, obviously lol. But most people don’t get to be resuscitated and go on to nuttsbutter: Puss in boots moment sheebadreams: breh nuttsbutter: Wait, you got what now?
smittyyyy: :FerretLaugh: sheebadreams: Revival smittyyyy: Yeah if someone dies you can revive them
smittyyyy: :Scrum:
sheebadreams: Does almost being crushed by two semis count? smittyyyy: Depending on what is killing them. smittyyyy: TW here ||I overdosed twice but ended up being saved both times by good Samaritans smittyyyy: But like I said, I must be a cat or something. smittyyyy: Half cat half raccoon maybe? smittyyyy: https://tenor.com/view/raccoon-hug-cat-gif-13249907 nuttsbutter: Raccoons are basically cats nuttsbutter: Just with thumbs smittyyyy: Trashy cat pandas smittyyyy: :HydroHeart: nuttsbutter: Love trash pandas sheebadreams: That's what you both are lol nuttsbutter: I wish I could own one smittyyyy: Racc supremacy. smittyyyy: :PopRacc: :PopRacc: :PopRacc: sheebadreams: ._. nuttsbutter: But Texas law in cringe sheebadreams: You both are making me want to make a trash panda sona-
